HERMAN B WELLS AWARD

Herman B Wells served as president of Indiana University from 1937 to 1962, and then as chancellor until his death in 2000. A beloved leader of uncommon vision and generosity, his legacy continues to permeate every corner of the university. The Indiana Memorial Union Board of Directors created the award in 1961 to honor an outstanding senior who has excelled academically and is an established leader within the IU community.

ELVIS J. STAHR DISTINGUISHED SENIOR AWARDS

Elvis Jacob Stahr Jr. served as president of Indiana University from 1962 to 1968, succeeding Herman B Wells. He had been a Rhodes Scholar, a practicing attorney, provost of the University of Kentucky and University of Pittsburgh, president of West Virginia University, and Secretary of the Army under John F. Kennedy. He established the awards to honor IU seniors who excel academically while serving as active campus and community leaders. Awardees demonstrate significant academic achievement, often with research experience.

SUSAN BUTLER AWARD

The Butler Award honors the memory of Susan Butler, the mother of Margaret Butler Snow, a supporter of Indiana University during the Great Depression. It recognizes a graduating senior woman who has demonstrated outstanding scholarship and character.

CLARA JAVAN GOODBODY AWARD

The Goodbody Award was established in memory of Clara Javan Goodbody, the mother of Louise Ann Goodbody, who served as Indiana University's dean of women from 1906 to 1911. The award is presented each year to a senior woman who is planning to pursue graduate study in the fall term following graduation in May or August.

P. J. AND HILDA W. HILL AWARD

The Hill Award was established by a gift from P. J. Hill, a 1920 graduate of Indiana University. He was the first African American principal of an American desegregated secondary school. Each spring the award is presented to an outstanding IU Bloomington senior who has demonstrated a commitment to creating an equitable and inclusive campus during their undergraduate career.

KATE HEVNER MUELLER OUTSTANDING SENIOR AWARDS

Kate Hevner Mueller served Indiana University from 1937 to 1969 as dean of women, senior counselor for women, and a professor of education. The Kate Hevner Mueller Outstanding Senior Awards were established in 2013 to honor IU seniors who have provided leadership on campus both inside and outside of the classroom, and who have improved the IU community by their presence.
